

Nadiia Prosiatnikova

JUNIOR QA ENGINEER

I am an enterprising junior QA Manual Engineer who seeks to start effective work at a leading IT company. Although I have little relevant experience in the role, I bring a fresh perspective.

With my passion for perfection, I am adept at spotting even the smallest mistakes. Joining a professional team, I will try to inject energy and passion into the quality assurance process while honing my skills and building a bright future in the industry. Let's work together to create an extraordinary, error-free experience for your users.
